

SNOODLES' DIARY—WHEN IT COMES TO THAT SYMPATHY STUFF HIS PA IS THERE.

COBB SEES THE OGDEN TEAM WIN 2 TO 1

"Kitty" Knight outpitched Ames in the game with Helena yesterday and aided his own game along by scoring one of the runs for Ogdén with a long drive over the fence. The score was 2 to 1 and the smallness and closeness indicates what a good game was enjoyed by the large number of women and small number of gentlemen fans. When the games are confined to nine innings, Ogdén and Helena can put through a game in the quickest possible time of any two teams that have played at Glenwood. The game yesterday was played in one hour and 27 minutes.

Paul Cobb, the brother of the famous Tyros, Ogdén's new center fielder, arrived yesterday afternoon and went to the ball grounds to see the tail-end of the game. He is scheduled to play in the game today which will not begin until 4:30 o'clock.

Ogdén did the first scoring which consisted of Knight's home run in the third inning. Pourroy missed three strikes and was out, when Knight came to bat and sent out the long drive. Woolums fouled out and Moorehead went out by the Quigley-Lussel route.

The visitors tied the score in the fourth. After Menges had been retired, Quigley, Lussel and Gibson each singled scoring the only run secured. The inning might have been worse but Dorch and Crittenden fled out.

Ogdén scored the winning run in the seventh. Risberg singled, Murray and Felts went out in order on grounders, but the play gave Risberg a chance to land on third. Pourroy delivered the necessary single and Risberg scored.

Among the features of the game were long throws by Spencer and Moorehead which cut off runs at the plate. Felts and Pourroy both went to sleep on bases and were tagged. Both sides supported the pitchers in great shape. One error for each side was chalked up.

SALT LAKE WINS FROM GREAT FALLS

Salt Lake, July 2.—John McCloskey's much-talked-of "Stoney" Mc-Glynn, former big leaguer, made his debut before a Salt Lake crowd yesterday, and with the customary "Mc-Closkey luck," not only pitched a remarkable game of ball against Great Falls, but won his own game when he hit one of Williams' fast ones out of the lot when there were two on.

The long train ride from the shores of Lake Michigan to a much higher altitude did not appear to affect the veteran, who has been McCloskey's one best bet in the big leagues, and the big minors also, for he pitched a heady game against strangers and with total strangers assisting him. It was well that he did pitch such ball, however, for "Steamboat" Williams, dished up an article of heaving that would have defeated any pitching that has been dealt out by a Salt Lake hurler against Great Falls in the present series.

McGlynn had one bad inning, the sixth, when doubles by Heister and Kelly and a single by Faye netted two runs for the visitors.

Captain Huelsman came across with his daily clout over the wall, and Salt Lake's first score was sent across in that manner.

Salt Lake did not look to have a chance to tie the score, much less win, against the masterly pitching of Williams, until the seventh, and then no one in the stands could figure out a chance. After Dressen had flown out to Galena, Davis singled, but Schlimpf popped an easy one to Dots Stripp, however, raised the hopes of the fans by pounding out a single. It was all up to "Stoney"

McGlynn. "Just get a single if you want to make yourself solid here for life," shouted several in the stands.

"Stoney" hooked the first one and hit it on top of the house just outside of the left field fence, netting three runs.

After that McGlynn tightened up and sent Great Falls down one-two-three in the next two innings. Manager McCloskey announced yesterday that he had released Fiddler and Hungary, and that Jake Bauer would leave the team after the present series.

Notwithstanding the fact that Ringling Brothers' circus gave a performance immediately across the street from the ball park, the largest week-day crowd of the season attended the game.

Johnson, another right-hand pitcher, is due to join the Skyscrapers to-day or tomorrow. He hails from the St. Louis Nationals.

Butte, Aug. 1.—Butte outfit and outpitched Missoula today, winning both games of a double header, the first 13 to 9 and the second 8 to 7.

The second game was clinched for Missoula, until a batting rally by Butte tied it in the seventh, and another in the ninth gave them an ex-
